

ASPERGER'S SYNDROME BEYOND CHILDHOOD

Friday 13 March 2009 and Saturday 14 March 2009

TWO WORKSHOPS

By

Dr Tony Attwood and Dr Isabelle Hénault

DAY 1 – Asperger's Syndrome in Adolescence and Beyond

Friday 13 March 2009

9.00am – 4.30pm

Adolescence is a time of change in physique, friendships, thinking, sexual development and emotions. The program will include explanations and strategies to help the adolescent, their parents and teachers cope with the changes. The program will also include a section on post adolescent needs such as employment, independence and relationships.

DAY 2 – Asperger's Syndrome in Couple Relationships

Saturday 14 March 2009

9.00am – 4.30pm

The program will include an explanation of the issues experienced in a relationship when one or both of the partners have the characteristics of Asperger's syndrome. The presenters will suggest and discuss with the participants, strategies to improve the relationship. There will also be a section on the effects on children of having a parent with the characteristics of Asperger's syndrome.

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHICAL DETAILS

Dr Isabelle Hénault has a masters degree in sexology and a doctorate of psychology from the University of Quebec at Montreal, Canada. She currently has a private practice in Montreal that provides assessment and therapy for individuals, couples and families, and acts as a consultant to a variety of organizations and schools. Her expertise lies in Asperger's syndrome, with a special emphasis on sexuality, and she is the author of Asperger's Syndrome and Sexuality : From Adolescence Through Adulthood (2006) published by Jessica Kingsley Publishers. She is involved with several international research projects on sexual education and psychotherapy for people on the autism spectrum. Dr Hénault has previously worked with Professor Tony Attwood for several years in Brisbane, Australia.

Dr Tony Attwood is a clinical psychologist who has specialised in autism spectrum disorders since he qualified as a clinical psychologist in England in 1975. He works in private practice in Brisbane, but is also adjunct professor at Griffith University, Queensland. His book Asperger's Syndrome – A Guide for Parents and Professionals has sold over 300,000 copies and has been translated into twenty languages. He has worked with over 2000 individuals of all ages with Asperger's syndrome. Tony presents workshops and runs training courses for parents, professionals and individuals with Asperger's syndrome all over the world and is a prolific author of scientific papers and books on the subject. His new book The Complete Guide to Asperger's Syndrome was published in October 2006.
